

Lake of Bays Tennis Club (LBTC) – Tennis Camp Code of Conduct

It is our commitment to provide a rich, fun and rewarding experience for all of our LBTC Kids Tennis Camps' (LBTC Camps) participants and foster a positive, safe and welcoming environment for everyone. Families, staff and volunteers participating in the LBTC Camps, agree to abide by the following code:

- Treat everyone (staff, volunteers, campers, parents and LBTC members, etc.) with respect and dignity. Any act of discrimination, harassment, bullying, violence or abuse will not be tolerated and will lead to immediate expulsion from the LBTC Camps. Any act that may compromise the health, safety or wellbeing of others may also lead to expulsion from LBTC Camps.
- All staff, volunteers and campers shall wear appropriate tennis attire (any colour is welcome) and non-marking shoes to help maintain the good condition of the courts.
- Parents/caregivers are asked to provide any information about their child that may assist staff in best supporting their child's experience at camp. Staff will maintain confidentiality of all personal information and only share where required to support the camper or in executing the duties of their role.
- In order to support a positive environment and respect neighbours of the LBTC in the Lake of Bays community, garbage and recycling should be placed in appropriate bins, bathrooms should be kept clean, and be mindful of excessive noise.
- All parents/caregivers, staff, volunteers and campers shall adhere to any Covid-19 processes and protocols in place at LBTC which will be provided prior to the start of camp. These measures may include social distancing, masking, cohorting, hand-hygiene, health screening, etc.
- LBTC is not responsible for the loss of any personal belongings.
- All campers, staff and volunteers are required to advise the appropriate person if they feel unwell either before or during camp.
- Campers are required to remain with their assigned instructor at all times, especially when visiting the waterfront or swimming.

By participating in Lake of Bays Tennis Club- Tennis Camps, I agree that I have read, understand and agree to abide by these rules.
